

Try the fly at Ty'n y Cornel

Announcing the launch of the
Tal-y-Llyn Young Anglers Club

Here is a chance for young, local people up to 16 yrs old to fly fish at Wales' premier wild brown trout fishery, Tal-y-Llyn, Nr Tywyn.

Whether experimenting for the first time, or wishing to expand your repertoire of skills, come and join us on the first and third Sunday of each month for a morning's fishing ABSOLUTELY FREE.

Fully qualified & trained coaches will be at hand to teach the young anglers of all abilities and ages the art of fly casting and fly fishing.

The club is to be launched on 20th July at the Royal Welsh Show, Llanellwedd at the Environment Agency stand. Why not come along and meet the team of Ty'n y Cornel Hotel & Tal y Llyn Fishery. Any new members who enrol will receive their fee Tal y Llyn Young Anglers Club Tee Shirt and membership certificate together with full details of forthcoming events at the Fishery. There will also be a fly casting demonstration from leading members of the Welsh Fly Fishing International Squad.

The first 'Try the Fly' will take place at Tal-y-llyn on Sunday 25th July, and every first & third Sunday thereafter until the end of season. The closed season will see monthly fly tying demonstration and tuition to ensure that age old techniques are passed onto the up and coming generation of anglers. All fishing tackle hire and tuition will be provided free of charge and parents will be welcome for coffee and to spectate from Ty'n y Cornel Hotel on the banks for the 222 acre fishery.
